PROJECT MANAGER STRATEGY & CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT [all genders]

The Project Manager Strategy & Corporate Development assists the CEO in his efforts to develop and execute strategies, change programs and corporate development initiatives.

Your skills are in demand. We need you to:

- / Be a trusted advisor to the senior leadership team on matters of strategy and the business framework
- / Partner with the extended management team to develop, execute and convey the corporate strategy
- / Carry out projects and initiatives, taking responsibility for steering these efforts to success
- / Proactively optimize current core business processes and assess new options
- / Collaborate closely with department heads and the senior leadership team to facilitate their decision-making
- / Analyze issues to provide actionable insights, executable strategies and options to enable senior leadership to make quick, well-informed decisions
- / Draft strategy documents and business plans; support shareholder reporting
- / Partner with all stakeholders to put plans into action

Your credentials are persuasive. You have:

- / Industrial engineering or business economics degree
- / At least 3-5 years of experience in strategy development, consulting, change management or senior project management positions at a medium-sized manufacturing company in the electronics sector
- / Experience in the digital transformation of business processes
- / Can-do initiative, hands-on mentality and a passion for making cross-functional projects work
- / A proven track record in formulating strategy and executing strategic projects

Your are:

- / Strong communication skills and the ability to handle challenges even in critical situations in a competent and confident way
- / An analytical mindset and conceptual approach
- / A team player with excellent interpersonal communication, presentation and negotiation skills
- / Customer-focused with great business acumen
- / Highly self-motivated and results-focused
- / Open-minded and straightforward personality
- / Able to take the driver's seat and propel projects
- / Fluency in English with excellent writing skills are a must; proficiency in German is an asset

We walk the talk.

We offer you a chance to team up with dynamic and energetic international professionals within a challenging and knowledge sharing environment. This position presents an excellent opportunity to take on the role of a real influencer, demonstrate the capabilities of a results-focused manager in a high-visibility role, and, over the medium term, win a chance to assume further responsibility.

We welcome your application and look forward to discussing how Vincotech can become your next career choice!
